

The Heavens Declare Your Glory, Lord

DEO GRACIAS LM

Dennis Dewey, 2009, after Isaac Watts, 1719 "The Agincourt Carol," England, c. 1415

1. The heavens de - clare your glo - ry, Lord, your
2. Your great de - sign the heavens un - fold: both 3. The sun and moon and stars give praise; the 4. More pre - cious is your Word than gold and 5. May all our fail - ures eve - ry day be wis - dom shines in stars that burn, But night and day your great - ness trace; And shift - y winds, the heav - ing sea; Just sweet - er than the hon - ey - comb; And bathed in your for - giv - ing light. May when our hearts at - tend your Word there as we hear your sto - ries told, we so your sto - ries surge with life and when we hear your sto - ry told our all we do and all we say find best in - struc - tion we may learn. bask in your a - maz - ing grace.

show us what to do and be.
minds find peace, our hearts find home.
full ac - cept - ance in your sight.