

The Lord Came to Jerusalem

REPTON 8.6.8.8.6.6.

Dennis Dewey, 2009
John 2:13-22

C. Hubert H. Parry, 1888

The Lord came to Je - ru - sa - lem, the
And mak - ing then a whip of cords, he “What sign have you for do - ing this?” his O Lord, you spoke a - bout your - self—your

Pass - ov - er at hand, And in the tem - ple drove them all from there, And said a - bout this cri - tics asked in scorn. “Tear down the tem - ple ris - ing from the dead. May we in re - sur - courts there found The mon - ey chan - gers all a - round— The sad dis - grace: “God’s house is not a mar - ket - place! Do stand - ing here, And three days la - ter will ap - pear An - rec - tion light, As those who seek to live a - right, Re - ho - ly her - i - tage be - come a sac - ri - lege!

you not know or care? This is a place of prayer.”
oth - er on that mom in which new life is borne.”
mem ber what you said and by your truth be led.