

You Are My Light and My Salvation

PSALM 27
(For Bill Carter)

Dennis Dewey, 2011

CHOIR:

You are my light and my salvation;
I will never live in fear.
You are my refuge, my sure stronghold;
I will not be afraid.

Though accosted and surrounded by a host of adversaries,
though they mean to do me harm,
yet I will trust in you.

One thing I have asked of you:
that I may ever dwell in peace,
praying in your holy temple
all the days of my life.

When I face a present danger,
your sure grace will comfort me.
You will hide me in your tent,
lifting me, Mighty Rock.

Now I lift my head up high,
and on my lips are shouts of joy.
Melodies for my salvation
I will sing to you.

Hear me when I cry aloud;
in your grace, Lord, answer me!
"Come," my heart says, "seek God's face!"
Lord, do not hide from me.
